

Module 1      Our UU Plurality of Theology

- Light review of the “Theological Plurality in Our Congregations” course
- Explore Tillich’s concept of “Ultimate Reality,” and how we will approach “god” in this course
- Outline different pluralistic frameworks at play in Unitarian Universalism
- Begin with a little Process Thought

Module 2      A Smidgen of Science and a Thimble of Theodicy

- Explore some of the history of Process Thought (a hint of history)
- Cover a little science and theology as entry points to understanding Process Theology
- Peruse a portion of pastoral care from a Process perspective

Module 4      The Oversoul, the Force, and Chi (Oh My!)

- Explore various forms of dynamic, non-traditional theologies that are not Process Theology
- Tease out the differences found in Process perspective
- Look deeper at the common Process theology themes

Module 5      A New Way of Knowing God (and other stories)

- Appreciate the power of a good story
- Engage with Process Spirituality
- Develop ways to articulate your Process perspective to others

Module 7      Power, Purpose, and Polity

- Explore the parallels of Process Theology and Freidman’s Systems Thinking
- Consider the connection between Covenant, Relational Power and Congregational Polity
- Uncover how all this relates to your role as a leader in your congregation

Module 8      Beauty and Its Implications

- Deepen our sense of the dynamic interplay that creates beauty
- Briefly unpack why perfection is not important (or even possible)
- Remember Plato and his trinity of values
- Discover anew what is most important for leadership and for life.